

William J. McKlveen

t: 208.344.8535

wmcklveen@eberle.com

Bill is an AV-rated lawyer who has been a partner at Eberle Berlin for over 40 years. During Bill's illustrious career, he has practiced in both litigation and transactional work, but Bill's current practice focuses on all types of commercial transactions, business counseling and real estate. Bill represents a wide variety of local businesses, entrepreneurs, and developers and assists his clients in nearly all aspects of their businesses.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Business Counseling
- Business Transactions
- Estate Planning, Trusts and Wills
- Finance and Secured Lending
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Real Estate Transactions
- Taxation

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

- Recipient of the 1998 Idaho State Bar Professionalism Award
 - This award is given to a few select Idaho lawyers each year, and is one of the highest honors Idaho lawyers can receive during their careers. The award is an expression of respect, communication, and appreciation from the recipient's peers.
- Martindale-Hubbell Rating: AV (the highest rating available for a lawyer's legal ability and professional ethics)
- Mountain States Super Lawyer, Super Lawyers

PROFESSIONAL INVOLVEMENT

- American College of Real Estate Lawyers, Member
- Idaho State Bar Association, Member

COURT ADMISSIONS

- All State Courts in Idaho
- United States District Court, District of Idaho

EDUCATION

- University of Texas School of Law, J.D.
- Grinnell College, B.A.

RANDOM FACTS

- Bill's favorite pastime is spending time with his seven grandchildren
- From October through January, Bill routinely has "Duck Flu" during the morning
- Bill can be found playing golf at Hillcrest Country Club most afternoons, weather permitting